

EVENTS CAPITAL

Hong Kong has been presenting her charm as Asia's Events Capital to the world, hosting a wide array of mega events.

These include Art Basel Hong Kong, Hong Kong Sevens, FIVB Volleyball Nations League, Hong Kong International Dragon Boat Races, Hong Kong Cyclothon, Hong Kong Wine & Dine Festival and Hong Kong WinterFest. Their success showcases Hong Kong's dynamism and attractiveness as an events capital.

At least 93 mega events will be held in the first half of 2025, covering culture and art, sports, finance, trade exhibitions, etc. We welcome the staging of more international mega events in Hong Kong, and the visit of tourists from around the world to participate in and experience Hong Kong's unique glamour.

New landmark in Hong Kong – Kai Tak Sports Park

Kai Tak Sports Park is a fully integrated sports, leisure and entertainment destination. The 28-hectare Sports Park is part of the redevelopment on the site of the old Hong Kong International Airport in Kai Tak.

The Sports Park features a 50,000-seat Main Stadium (Kai Tak Stadium) with a retractable roof, an Indoor Sport Centre (Kai Tak Arena) with the flexibility to host community sports and events of up to 10,000 seats, and a Public Sports Ground (named Kai Tak Youth Sports Ground) with a capacity of 5,000 seats.

These venues are complemented with extensive public open spaces for events and leisure together with retail and harbour front dining spaces.
