

Arts, Culture and Sports

Overview

Hong Kong is developing hardware and software to promote the long term development of the culture and sports sectors. This ties in with the city's positioning as an East-meets-West centre for international cultural exchange, as set out in the National 14th Five-Year Plan.

The current-term Government is committed to fostering the cultural development of Hong Kong to expedite its progression into an East-meets-West centre for international cultural exchange by mapping out a Blueprint for Arts and Culture and Creative Industries Development, nurturing a diverse talent pool, enriching arts, cultural and creative content, and upgrading cultural infrastructure to further enhance the ecosystem for the relevant industries.

Arts and culture

Hong Kong has:

- 15 museums, two art spaces and 16 performance venues under the management of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) attract more than 6.3 million visitors and 2.9 million attendees in 2023 respectively. The Chief Executive's 2023 Policy Address has proposed the continued implementation of a 10-year development blueprint for arts and cultural facilities, in which the number of LCSD's museums will be increased to over 20 and the number of seats at performance venues will be increased by about 67%.
- A museum will be set up to showcase the development and achievements of our country.
- In 2024, the existing Hong Kong Museum of Coastal Defence will be converted into the Hong Kong Museum of the War of Resistance and Coastal Defence, focusing on the history of the War of Resistance, to cultivate a stronger sense of national esteem and patriotism.
- Over 6,100 performing art programmes/activities were presented and sponsored by the LCSD attracting over 2.1 million spectators/participants in 2023.
- Major performing arts groups: Chung Ying Theatre Company; City Contemporary Dance Company; Hong Kong Ballet; Hong Kong Chinese Orchestra; Hong Kong Dance Company; Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra; Hong Kong Repertory Theatre; Hong Kong Sinfonietta; and Zuni Icosahedron.
- Major arts and cultural events: Art Basel Hong Kong, Art Central, Chinese Culture Festival (including the Chinese Opera Festival), French May Arts Festival, Hong Kong Arts Festival, Hong Kong International Film Festival, Hong Kong Film Awards, Entertainment Expo Hong Kong, Asian Film Awards, Hong Kong-Asia Film Financing Forum, Ink Asia, Hong Kong Pop Culture Festival, Museum Summit, International Arts Carnival and Asia+ Festival. The Government will foster arts and cultural exchanges and collaboration with the Mainland, including organising the 4th Greater Bay Area Culture and Arts Festival in 2024.
- West Kowloon Cultural District is one of the world's largest cultural projects offering world-class performance venues and museums as well as diversified arts and cultural programmes.
- Tai Kwun – Centre for Heritage and Arts, encompassing 16 heritage buildings, including the former Central Police Station, Victoria Prison and Central Magistracy, is a cultural hub offering multi-purpose venues for a variety of local, national and international artistic offerings.

- PMQ: revitalised site of the former Police Married Quarters on Hollywood Road, is a creative industries landmark that is home to 100+ local young create-preneurs and hosts creative and design events.

Other initiatives

- Create Hong Kong will be restructured as the Cultural and Creative Industries Development Agency, to promote the development of the arts, culture and creative sectors.
- The LCSD will establish a Chinese Culture Promotion Office, to plan and implement programmes to promote Chinese culture and history, while the Chinese Culture Festival will be organised, starting 2024.
- The Mega Arts and Cultural Events Fund launched in 2023 targets mega arts and cultural events organised by the private sector and non-government organisations in Hong Kong. It aims to attract and support international and large-scale arts and cultural events to be held in Hong Kong, with a view to further developing the city into an “arts and cultural hub”.
- Arts Capacity Development Funding Scheme was launched in 2011 to nurture small and medium-sized arts groups and budding artists.
- The Government has allocated $42 million to organise the first Hong Kong Performing Arts Expo in October 2024.
- Key arrangements of Signature Performing Arts Programme Scheme will be devised in the first half of 2024 to support representative and large-scale local programmes.
- The Government has allocated $37 million over six years starting from 2022-23 to provide professional training for the conservation staff of the LCSD and the West Kowloon Cultural District Authority and increase the number of places under the museum trainee (conservation) programme and the summer internship programme.
- Sham Shui Po Design and Fashion Project to nurture young design talents and fashion designers, support design start-ups and help boost the local economy. The project was completed and transferred in 2023 to the Hong Kong Design Centre to operate .
- From 2024 onwards, a flagship initiative, the Hong Kong Fashion Design Week, will be organised annually to develop Hong Kong's fashion and textile design brands, and promote the city as a prime destination for hosting major cultural and creative events.
- Invigorating Island South initiative to enhance cultural and leisure facilities in Wong Chuk Hang, Aberdeen and Ap Lei Chau, and to expedite the redevelopment/conversion of old industrial buildings in Wong Chuk Hang to provide more operating space for arts and culture.
- To further promote the exchange of culture and arts in the Greater Bay Area (GBA), $20 million will be allocated for Hong Kong to host the 4th Greater Bay Area Culture and Arts Festival in 2024, when 5,000 Hong Kong and Mainland artists as well as other arts and culture practitioners are expected to offer high-quality cultural and performing arts programmes.
- Starting from the financial year 2023-24, $135 million will be spent over five years to support Hong Kong performing arts groups and artists taking part in performances and productions in the GBA. Each year, 1,000 Hong Kong artists are expected to participate in these activities in front of an audience of 40,000 in the GBA.

CreateSmart Initiative (CSI)

- Since CSI was launched in 2009, over $2.8 billion had been allocated to help the creative sector organise over 720 projects in Hong Kong, the Mainland and overseas, benefiting around 21,000 small and medium enterprises and generating over 30,000 jobs and over 80,000 nurturing opportunities.

- The 2024-25 budget will inject an additional $2.9 billion to the CSI to continue to support the development of the seven non-film sectors of creative industries, and to encourage more cross-sectoral and cross-genre collaboration on creative and cultural programmes.
- The CSI will also provide funding support for the Hong Kong Design Centre and the Hong Kong Trade Development Council to implement flagship events and incubation programmes, and funding support for the operation and activities of the Sham Shui Po Design and Fashion Project to nurture design talents and assist start-ups to build their brands, and help boost the local economy.
- From 2024 onwards, about 50 projects under the CSI will be subsidised annually.

Pop culture and film

- Since 2005, the Government has injected a total of $1.54 billion into the Film Development Fund (FDF) to support the local film industry along four strategic directions, namely nurturing talent, enhancing local production, expanding markets and building the audience. Over 100 emerging directors and producers were engaged in some 100 approved films. The Government injected about $1.4 billion into the FDF in 2024/25.
- To promote Hong Kong's pop culture to go global, the Government strives to expand the industry's development capacity with three foci on film, TV and streaming platforms respectively.
- The inaugural Hong Kong Pop Culture Festival was launched in April 2023, featuring an array of over 20 exciting events throughout the year and attracting more than 500,000 audience.
- The Government supports through FDF collaboration between local and Asian production teams for co-production of films and development of new content on streaming platforms by cross-sectoral production teams to facilitate Hong Kong film industry to enter new distribution markets.
- The Government will launch the Film Financing Scheme for Mainland Market for supporting Hong Kong film companies and Mainland cultural enterprises to invest in the productions of Hong Kong directors for release in the Mainland market.
- The Government will also launch the Hong Kong-Europe-Asian Film Collaboration Funding Scheme for subsidising film projects co-produced by Hong Kong filmmakers and their Asian and European counterparts in order to enhance international exchanges and nurture talent, thereby enabling Hong Kong films to go global.

Intangible cultural heritage

- Cantonese opera – first Hong Kong item inscribed on the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization's (UNESCO) "Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity" in September 2009.
- The 2022-23 Budget injected $100 million into the Cantonese Opera Development Fund to support the long-term development of the Cantonese opera sector.
- Twelve items of intangible cultural heritage of Hong Kong are inscribed onto "The National List of Intangible Cultural Heritage": Cantonese opera; Hakka unicorn dance in Hang Hau in Sai Kung; Quanzhen temples Taoist ritual music; Cheung Chau Jiao Festival; Tai O dragon boat water parade; Yu Lan Festival of the Hong Kong Chiu Chow community; Mid-Autumn Festival – the Tai Hang fire dragon dance; Wong Tai Sin belief and customs; Tin Hau Festival in Hong Kong; herbal tea; the arts of the guqin (the craft of qin making); and Hong Kong cheongsam making technique.

- The above items, together with nanyin (southern tunes); spring and autumn ancestral worship of clans; Mid-Autumn Festival – the Pok Fu Lam fire dragon dance; Taoist ritual tradition of the Zhengyi school; sek pun (basin feast); Hong Kong-style milk tea making technique; paper crafting technique; Hong Kong kwan kwa wedding costume making technique; and bamboo theatre building technique, form the first “Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Hong Kong”, which was announced in August 2017.

West Kowloon Cultural District

West Kowloon Cultural District (WKCD) is one of the world’s largest cultural projects. Blending traditional local culture with international and contemporary elements, WKCD showcases the unique identity of Hong Kong as a metropolis where East meets West, and establishes Hong Kong as one of the most vibrant arts and cultural hubs in the world. Spanning 40 hectares along the shore of Victoria Harbour, WKCD offers world-class integrated arts and cultural facilities:

- M+ – Asia’s first global museum of contemporary visual culture, exhibiting visual art, design and architecture, moving image, and Hong Kong visual culture of the 20th and 21st centuries.
- Hong Kong Palace Museum – displaying valuable artefacts on loan from the Palace Museum in Beijing that represent 5,000 years of Chinese art and culture from the imperial courts.
- Xiqu Centre – a new landmark offering a superb platform for the production, education, preservation and promotion of Cantonese opera and other forms of Chinese traditional theatre.
- Freespace – a creative venue for multiple forms of contemporary performing arts, where artists and audiences can exchange and explore new ideas.
- Art Park – a quality open green space and a vibrant venue for open-air performances and other cultural programmes.
- Lyric Theatre Complex – a centre of excellence showcasing the best of Hong Kong and international dance and theatre productions (expected to be completed in 2025).

Sports

The Government is committed to promoting sports in the community, supporting elite sports, promoting Hong Kong as a centre for major international sports events, enhancing professionalism and developing sports as an industry. The bulk of Government spending on sports development goes to the promotion of sports in the community, which accounts for over 80% of overall expenditure.

Hong Kong has:

- 105 public indoor sports centres with an average usage rate of the main arenas at about 91% in 2023.
- 45 public swimming pool complexes with attendance of over 12 million in 2023.
- The Hong Kong Sports Institute (HKSI), which supports around 1,400 athletes (including around 600 full-time athletes), provides elite sports training for 20 Tier A sports and six Tier A disability sports. The Government has allocated $990 million to the main works project for the new facilities building of the HKSI, which will be completed in mid-2024, to provide more advanced training facilities for elite athletes. The Government will also allocate additional resources to enhance its Sports Medicine Centre.
- Major sports events include: Hong Kong Marathon, World City Championship (Golf), Hong Kong Sevens, FIVB Volleyball Nations League Hong Kong, Hong Kong International Dragon Boat Races, Hong Kong Open Badminton Championships, Aramco Team Series Hong Kong (Golf), Hong Kong Open (Golf), FIA World Rallycross Championship Hong Kong, China Season Finale, Harbour Race, Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge (HK Section) Half Marathon, FIBA 3x3 World Tour Hong Kong Masters, Hong Kong Squash Open, WDSF Breaking for Gold World Series Hong Kong, Hong Kong Tennis Open, LIV Golf Hong Kong, UCI Track Nations Cup, Hong Kong, China as well as World Triathlon Cup Hong Kong in 2023-24.

Other initiatives

- The Government launched in January 2022 a $300 million Sports Science and Research Funding Scheme, which is jointly financed with the Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust with the aim of strengthening support in sports science and sports medicine to enhance the competitiveness of athletes at international sports events.
- The Government will continue to provide support for retired athletes and allocate more resources to expand the existing Retired Athletes Transformation Programme. The target is to double the number of retired athletes joining the programme within five years from 2022-23 to provide them with more opportunities for career transformation. Besides, the Government launched a five-year pilot programme on career and education for athletes with disabilities was launched in 2023 to equip them with the knowledge and skill necessary for transformation and development after retirement, and provide them with placement opportunities.
- The Government is exploring ways to further promote sports development through enhanced professionalism in the sports sector and development of sports as an industry. The Government will support the development of professional leagues and clubs, including enhancing the arrangement of training and competition venues for qualified sports clubs and supporting local sports clubs in their participation in major sports competitions on the Mainland and in the region, so as to take forward exchanges in sports and give impetus to the development of the sports industry in Hong Kong.
- The Government has substantially increased the yearly subvention for the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China and over 60 national sports associations (NSAs) since 2020-21, to enhance the promotion and development of sports in the community, youth training programmes, public participation, squad training at all levels, overseas exchange programmes/competitions; and enhance the corporate governance of NSAs. NSAs can also make use of the additional resources to improve their manpower and staff remuneration. The total amount of subvention has been increasing progressively from about $300 million in 2019-20 to more than $500 million from 2023-24 onwards.
- The Government will continue to strengthen the promotion of urban sports which are popular among the youth in recent years (including 3-on-3 basketball, futsal, sport climbing, skateboarding and breaking). Through the Urban Sports Funding Scheme, subsidy is provided to primary and secondary schools and organisations for organising training courses and activities on urban sports, providing no less than 8 000 young people with the opportunity to take part in the sports every year.
- The Development Programme for Team Sports 2024-27 has been launched since January 2024 to provide additional funding to NSAs of eligible team sports and support members of national squads and second-tier squads, with the aim of continuing to help enhance the performance of team sports progressively, and increase their chances of attaining elite sports status in future.
- The new building of the Hong Kong Sports Institute, to be completed in mid-2024, will provide more advanced training facilities for elite athletes. The Government will also allocate additional resources to enhance its Sports Medicine Centre.

Kai Tak Sports Park

Occupying an area of about 28 hectares, the Kai Tak Sports Park is the largest sports infrastructure ever in Hong Kong. It will provide modern and multi-purpose sports and recreation facilities to foster sports development in Hong Kong. The Sports Park is targeted for completion by the end of 2024 and for opening in the first half of 2025.

Sports and recreation facilities

- To make the public play spaces more innovative and fun as well as to meet the aspirations of local residents, the Government announced in 2019 the launching of a five-year plan to transform more than 170 public play spaces under the management of the LCSD. Since 2020, a total of 116 transformation projects have been rolled out in phases.
- The 2021-22 Budget earmarked $318 million to implement a five-year plan for upgrading over 70 football pitches under the management of the LCSD. Since 2021-22, over 40 projects have been implemented.
- The Government will continue to implement the 10-year development blueprint for sports and recreation facilities, providing about 30 diversified facilities by phases, such as sports centres, swimming pools, sports grounds and parks.
- To allow users to store or retrieve data of their physical activities and access information on sports and health via mobile applications, the Government will set up self-test fitness corners at sports centres and introduce smart fitness equipment to outdoor recreation venues under the management of the LCSD from 2024 onwards.

15th National Games 2025

Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macao will co-host the 15th National Games in 2025. Hong Kong will spare no effort to work closely with the relevant ministries of the Central Government, the Guangdong Provincial Government and the Macao Special Administrative Region Government on the preparatory work and follow the Central Authorities' requirement of striving for a "simple, safe and wonderful" Games.

(Revision date: May 21, 2024)

---

MAY 2024