

Asia's world city at a glance

Overview

With a cosmopolitan community of 7.52 million people who enjoy the best of East and West, Hong Kong is Asia's world city.

Famous for its hard assets, such as skyscrapers, world-class infrastructure and superb transportation system, Hong Kong also has many soft appeals in the form of beautiful countryside, interesting islands, a rich cultural and events calendar and exciting sports events.

The Washington-based Heritage Foundation has ranked Hong Kong the world's freest economy for 25 consecutive years.

Hong Kong also retained its ranking as the world's freest economy among 162 economies across the globe in Canada's Fraser Institute's Economic Freedom of the World: 2019 Annual Report.

Hong Kong welcomes talent, professionals and entrepreneurs from all over the world.

One Country, Two Systems

On 1 July 1997 Hong Kong returned to the Motherland and became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China.

- The National People's Congress authorises the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region to exercise a high degree of autonomy, with executive, legislative and independent judicial powers, including that of final adjudication, in accordance with the provisions of the Basic Law.
